MICHELIN GUIDE RECOMMENDED

Sea Thai

Thai

Parked on a cozy corner in the bustling Montgomery Village outdoor mall, Tony Ounpamornchai's authentic, upscale Thai-fusion bistro is more than a strip mall stop. Here, crimson walls crawl along a narrow dining space, and upscale Thai gets a Westernized spin in dishes like shrimp bruschetta, made with four squares of fresh, delicious bread topped with avocado, shrimp, cilantro, and spicy homemade Asian pesto. The lunch menu has plenty of goodies to choose from, though curry dishes are only served at dinner. For a fabulous finale, try the banana fritters with coconut ice cream—that should hush the aficionados complaining that prices here are higher than divier joints.

Folks in Petaluma enjoy the older sibling restaurant, SEA Modern Thai Cuisine.
